ASSOCIATE OF BIBLICAL STUDIES

1	BAH936 – Biblical Foundation of Mission The purpose of this course is to attest that in every genre of Scripture exists a foundation of missions. 12	BPA120 – Praise Life This course describes the elements necessary for us to obtain joy and strength in our lives; yes, it even holds us in the very Presence of God and His glory. It is called praise. Praise is much more than celebrating, or a prelude to worship on Sunday morning. Praise can, and should, become a lifestyle for the Believer who is serious about becoming a soldier of God, a person who is “kingdom on earth” useful.	3
13	BPA240 – Preparation for Ministry I This word armorbearer is something virtually unknown to the Body of Christ. God is stirring up men today to be called to be the position of armorbearers to the church leaders. The student will learn what is an armorbearer and what does he do?	3

16	BTH252 – Intro to Bible Theology II The purpose of this course is to give the student an overview of the Bible and to	3

17	BTH490 – Blood Covenant There is a blood line that stretches throughout the entire breadth of inspired scripture. This course enhances the reader's understanding and appreciation for the Blood of Jesus.	3

ASSOCIATE

OF PASTORAL COUNSELING

1	BAM111 – Introduction to Pastoral Care – Part 1 Counseling refers to a process of encouraging growth from within. It is rooted in a growing awareness of one's self. From this should come a less distorted way of seeing persons and relationships and greater courage to accept one's responsibility to make commitments and decisions. Pastoral counseling represents a fusion of two not altogether discrete sources: pastoral care, i.e. the traditional shepherding function of the Christian minister; and dynamic psychology, which focuses upon the striving aspects of personality as the key to understanding persons. This course introduces the student to Pastoral Counseling as a field within Practical Theology.	3
2	BAM211 – Introduction to Pastoral Care – Part 2 Pastoral care needs to have as its primary focus, the care of all God's people through the ups and downs of everyday life, the creation of caring environments within which all people can grow and develop to their fullest potential. Mathew 22:37 –	3

	39 reminds one that pastoral counseling points toward a ministry of reconciliation with both God and neighbor. This points toward the uniqueness of Biblically based interventions, in a world where almost every religion exercises pastoral counseling from the perspective of that religion.
3	BAM217 – Introduction to Christian Counseling Modern counseling has its roots in the spiritual formation practices of the church over the centuries. Christian counselors can draw from the best of modern counseling research, but also have the resources of the word, the Holy Spirit, and the church to guide their cooperation with God in bringing care and healing to hurting people. The ultimate goal of counseling is to help people become conformed to the image of Christ and to display the fruit of the spirit. This course provides students with an introduction to a theological and psychological model of humans that can guide our understanding of how people develop in either healthy or unhealthy ways.	3

4	BIN180 – Classical Pastoral Care I – Becoming a Minister Pastoral care is that branch of Christian theology that deals with care of persons by pastors. It is pastoral because it pertains to the offices, tasks, and duties of the pastor. It is care because it has charge of, and is deliberately attentive to the spiritual growth and destiny of persons. This course will teach that Pastoral care is analogous to a physician's care of the body. Since that particular sphere over which one exercises care is the psyche (soul, anima, the animating, enlivening, energizing, motivating spring of human existence without which a body is a corpse), pastoral care is also appropriately called the care of souls.	3
5	BINT203 – THE GOSPELS This course will review the historical Background of the Gospels, the message of the four Gospels, and the Life and ministry of Christ.	3
6	BNT100 – New Testament Survey This survey provides an overview of the New	3

	Testament. Study outlines of each book are provided for further development by the student.
7	BNT106 – Bible Doctrines This series of lessons is designed especially for the student to establish themselves upon a spiritual foundation. It is so that you would grow into a complete and perfect man or woman in Christ Jesus, unmovable, steadfast, and always abounding in the work of the Lord.	3

The New Testament was never intended to replace the Old Testament. Instead, the New Testament was given to complement the Old Testament, to complete the story.	3

11	BPA111 – Foundations of Faith Studies in Learning As we enter into the study of Foundations of Faith – Studying for Success, the student will learn the importance of how ” Faith is absolutely necessary in studying the Word of God. As students of the Bible, when we read and search the Scriptures, we must do it in faith. Faith allows the	3 anointing to flow and revelation knowledge to come forth.

12	BPA131 – Prayer I – Types Necessity In Matthew 6:9-13, the Lord’s Prayer is not a ritual prayer, but a pattern to follow. We notice that Jesus said we were to pray after a certain manner, not necessarily using certain words. This course will reveal that the model prayer is not a liturgy, or a form of public worship, but a guide to help us cover what is evidently important.	3
13	BPA232 – God’s Authority in the Believer The purpose of this course is to provide the student with a better grasp on who they are as a Believer. It is also to show that Jesus, unto whom all authority is given by God the Father and His Divine Nature, is then given unto us. Our authority is in Christ.	3
14	BPA342 – Prayer II As Christians, we have often misunderstood or have not understood at all the meaning and significance of prayer. It is much more than just a model prayer for us; it is	3 the revelation of God's heart. This course sums up those things that are central to God's plan for man.

15	BTH101 – Obedience It seems that people can talk about anything as long as it does not involve following a set of laws, rules, and regulations. In the past, obedience was almost always, "Don't do this!" and "Don't do that!" This course will show how obedience is the underlying theme of the entire Bible.	3
16	BTH341 – Spiritual Warfare I This course moves participants beyond the natural world into the realm of the Spirit. Tactics of the enemy are analyzed and strategies of spiritual warfare assuring victory over the principalities and powers of the spirit world are explained. Guidelines for receiving and ministering healing will also be covered.	3
17	BTH490 – Blood Covenant There is a blood line that stretches throughout the entire breadth of inspired scripture. From outside the	3

18	BTH492 – Christ Our Healer This course deals with God's hand of restoration, healing, and the purpose and process of reclaiming everything that was damaged in the fall of Adam. God has given man an escape from the curse and corruption. His purpose is an original garden relationship with His beloved man. The spirit, soul, and body of man are part of His healing work.	3
